DEDICATION

A man who is concerned about his students and their problems.

A man who is understanding and patient enough to explain.

A man who is friendly to all people.

The 1976 annual staff of East Mississippi Junior College proudly dedicates this edition of the LION to Mr. Clois Cheatham.

Mr. Cois Cheatham

STOP:

The time has come for a final accounting: to record the pep-rallies, the studying, and the activities that mark the momentum of our year, to wash the dabs of poster paint from our shoes and to contemplate the chemistry of water, and paint, and posters and people, and our year at E.M.J.C.

At the faces and friends that populate the campus; at the rulers and notebooks, the pencils and pictures, the labs and the test that decorate our days, occupy our hands, and expand our minds.

LISTEN. . .

To the ideas that clamor for attention amid the questions begging for answers and the lectures longing to be heard.

In years to come, as I look back, how will I remember? Will I remember the year as it was or as I had wished it to be? Will I remember only the happy time or the disappointments we also shared?

One By One

One by one our friends are passing;
One by one they slip away;
Passing from a world of shadows
To a world of perfect day.

One by one the links are broken;
Links that bind our spirits here,
But they will be reunited
Where the skies are always clear.

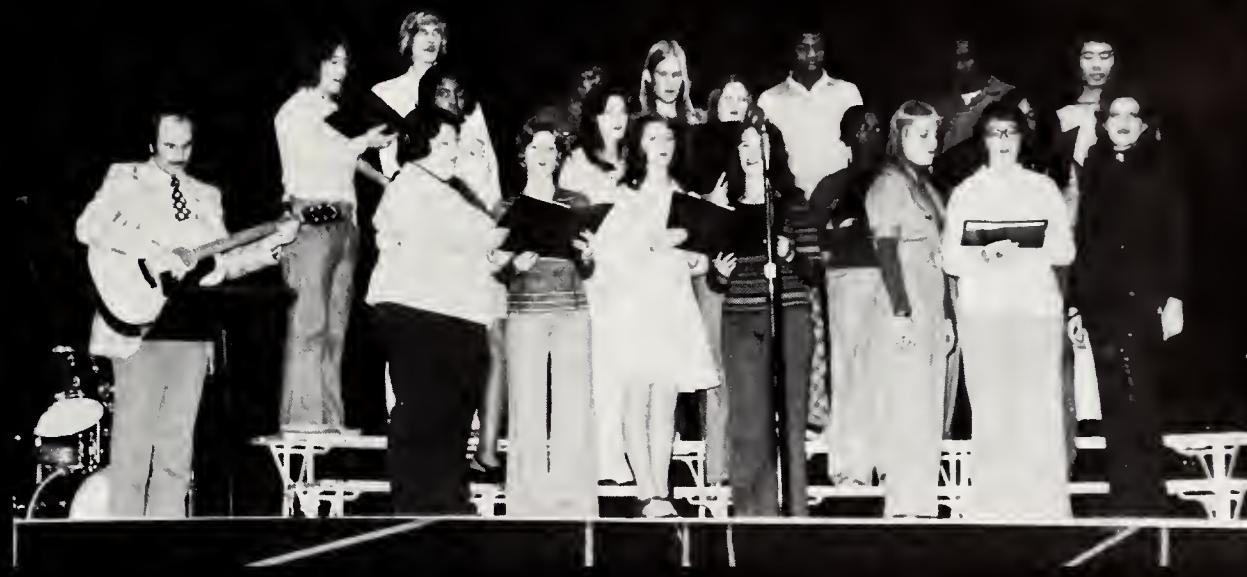

One by one the days are passing;
Days that seem so very long,
For we miss familiar voices
Coming like an old sweet song.
One by one the evening shadows,
Just a little longer grow.
And we draw a little nearer
To the time we too, must go.

But we would not stay the shadows,
Neither dread the time to go,
For we know —— beyond the shadows
Wait the ones we used to know.

Though we, bid adieu to loved ones,
Who perhaps will drop a tear,
We shall say "Good Morning" gladly —
To the ones awaiting there.

ORGANIZATIONS

Will I recall the good times of shared laughter that came from such simple things as having a coke, or enjoying the fresh spring sun? Was I alone or was I a real part of them? What will I remember?

*Those Were the Days,
My Friend!*

Hi Mom, Havin' a great time!

Do a little dance, get down tonight.

Is that a banana in your pocket?

Cold, cold, rainy days.

A HAPPY CREW!

Mrs. George Adkins presents Alumnus of the Year to Mr. Louis Agnew.

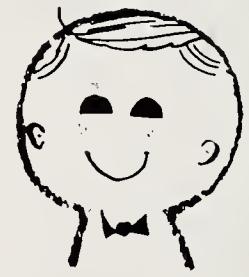

Those who stop will have time to look and become those who see; those who listen will become those who hear what it's all about. One last broom full of dust, one more flag to hold, one final walk in the rain, one more hug in the sunlight, one single touch of green to finish the arm-in-arm delights of our '75-'76 year.
